
Guinness vs. ____?

I probably mark myself as unsophisticated, but, dernit, I've loved Guinness for years. However...when Otto's here in State College, PA brews its coffee flavored stout, I need a designated driver. Smoooooth.

Guinness is my all time favorite big brewery beer! One of my favorite craft brews though is either DogFish Head 120 IPA or there Burton Batton!! Both are incredible and have made me a DogFish believer!

Guinness is fine, but I go for Beamish when I can.
