

---

Czech Brew\'s

Posted by VanillaGorilla - 2008/07/27 20:56

---

Anyone have a favirote Czech beer that they feel strongly about? I for one enjoy every drop of a cold Gambrinus preferably 12° but a 10° will more than suffice. http://static.flickr.com/3110/2422532859\_cbcdc53ec2.jpg

=====

Re:Czech Brew\'s

Posted by FreeStater - 2008/07/28 07:14

---

I made a beer pilgrimage to Plzen, CR in 2003 and can safely report that Pilsner Urquell, the original, on tap at the brewery is easily in my top 5 beers of the world.

I also like Staropramen and Budvar, but there are many Czech pivos that I don't really love comparatively. Gambrinus is one I didn't really like. Rebel is another.

=====

Re:Czech Brew\'s

Posted by VanillaGorilla - 2008/08/07 17:18

---

I have to agree with you that Plzensky Prazdroj is a great beer...and especially on tap in Plzen. Staropramen is a great one as well. Hmmm come to think of it, there isn't a Czech beer I don't like.

=====

Re:Czech Brew\'s

Posted by VanillaGorilla - 2008/08/16 21:14

---

Not to keep my thread alive, but here's a great Czech brew. One of our oldest dating back to the 1500's. http://farm1.static.flickr.com/84/247952985\_d02d738632.jpg?v=0

=====