There are some but they are few and far between. Depends on where you mean by SJ. From Trenton to Asbury Park and south most consider it. That is a large area. IN AC, there is Tun Tavern(brewpub) and Firewaters(beer bar). In Mt. Holly, there is High Street Grill, in Medford, Braddock's Tavern, Toms River, Basil T's(brewpub), and a few scattered bars that I can't think of at present. You can check out Beerfly at beeradvocate.com for a complete listing and reviews.

Cheers!

Mark is correct to ask what you mean by South Jersey. To me that means the counties bordering the Delaware River, mainly Salem, Cumberland, amnd Cape May. I would not include AC at all, and Gloucester Co. is a maybe.

As to why none in my geography of SJ I'd guess it's mainly a matter of taste, and taste here runs mainly towards Bud and friends; not my taste, just what I have observed. Thus,not much demand. When I want good brew I go across the river to Iron Hill, McKenzies, or Stewarts, or up to Phile.
